

SCOUT DOUBLE RIFLE MAG POUCH

APPLICATION

For carrying two magazines to the main weapon.

PROPERTIES

The elastic cord allows you to regulate the resistance of the magazine during draw and protects it from accidental dropping. The same elastic cord secures the flap, so access to the magazine is one-touch. The opening of the pouch is not accompanied by the unnecessary noise of the velcro.

MATERIALS

Fabrics:	Cordura
Webbing:	Polyamide 25 and 50 mm
Buckles:	Duraflex, YKK
Finish:	Shockcord
Other:	Polycarbonate stiffening

VARIANTS

With regular flap	The flap can be opened forwards and backwards, and when open does not interfere with drawing the magazine and does not fall back.
With box flap	The box flap thoroughly protects against external conditions.
With simple flap	Simple flap is particularly easy to handle.
